 FLY FISHING CELEBRITY CLASSIC

The Colorado Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation is pleased to announce its 8th Annual Rocky Mountain Fly Fishing Classic. This event will help raise funds "To Catch the Cure" for cystic fibrosis and will be held September 23-25, 2010 in the Aspen/Basalt, Colorado area. The tournament continues embrace the notable standard of excellence that founder Gary Ellis established with the Mercury Redbone Celebrity Tournament Series.

The competition is a strict catch-and-release, point accumulation tournament for wild trout, rainbow, brown and cutthroat trout. The limited number of boats will have two anglers paired with a world-class fishing guide, providing participants with an extraordinary fly fishing experience.
