37th Annual Superdance
Bishop O'Connell High School: Arlington, VA
March 10, 2012

This dance marathon is held annually at Bishop O'Connell High School in Arlington, Virginia. For the past 36 years, the students of O'Connell High School have danced in memory of the O'Donnell family, which lost three children to cystic fibrosis. Students raise money by obtaining pledges for every hour they dance during the 12-hour dance-a-thon. Superdance has raised $3 million since its inception. Contact: Ashleigh Kades at akades@cff.org

23rd Annual GREAT STRIDES Walk
Multiple locations in the Metropolitan Washington Area
May 9-20, 2012

Great Strides is the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's largest national fundraising event. This nationwide walk, held each year on the third weekend in May, brings tens of thousands of friends, co-workers, and families together as one community for one cause...to help find a cure for cystic fibrosis. The Metropolitan Washington, DC chapter holds twelve walks all around the metro area. Each walk begins with an inspiring send-off and ends with a celebration filled with food donated from local sponsors, music, and other festivities. The fun atmosphere is great for families or team-building. Contact: Aaron Stocks at astocks@cff.org

Chefs in the City
NAHB Building, D.C.
May, 21, 2012

Chefs in the City is a unique annual fundraising event that will bring the area's top chefs together for an evening to offer their signature cuisine to a limited number of guests in an intimate and exclusive setting.
