35th Annual Superdance
Bishop O'Connell High School: Arlington, VA
March 13, 2010

This dance marathon is held annually at Bishop O'Connell High School in Arlington, Virginia. For the past 34 years, the students of O'Connell High School have danced in memory of the O'Donnell family, which lost three children to cystic fibrosis. Students raise money by obtaining pledges for every hour they dance during the 12-hour dance-a-thon. Superdance has raised $3 million since its inception.

22nd Annual Walk to Cure CF
GREAT STRIDES
May 2, 7, 12 & 15-16, 2010

CF Foundation chapters around the country host GREAT STRIDES annually, the third weekend in May. This walk targets a variety of audiences from corporations to individuals, young and old. It offers corporations the opportunity to encourage teamwork and boost company morale. It is also a great chance for individuals to raise money for CF research, while spending a day with family and friends. The Metro DC Chapter sponsors walks in Maryland at Rockville, Bethesda and Waldorf; Washington, DC; and in Virginia at Leesburg, Centreville, Reston, Falls Church, Arlington, Vienna and Great Falls.

Page's Run
Churchill High School: Potomac, MD
October, 2010

Page Whetsell lost her battle to cystic fibrosis at the age of 22. She was a loving daughter, caring sister, and loyal friend to all who knew her. She was full of energy and never stopped running till the very end. In her memory, and for the adults and children still battling cystic fibrosis, The Page Memorial Fund holds a 5K walk/run to support the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Cure Finders
Ongoing

Participate in the CF Foundation's ongoing school fund-raising program for grades K - 12. Students compete year-round to see who can raise the most money in their school to help support CF research. Programs include jar wars, jeans for genes, and change for a cure. This is a great program for students to learn and develop their philanthropic abilities.
