Date: January 16, 2010
Net Goal: $200,000

This black tie optional presentation honors the most prolific center in college football. Named after Omaha's own Dave Rimington, this national event honors the best center in the NCAA. After the official ballots are cast, nominees and participants enjoy a first class evening including musical entertainment, dinner and drinks as well as the presentation of the Rimington Trophy to the most deserved athlete. It's an experience and an event that should not be missed.

Great Strides: A Walk to Cure Cystic Fibrosis

Locations: Omaha, Lincoln, Grand Island
Price: Sponsorship levels vary ($500-$10,000)
Date: May 8, 2010 - Omaha
May 15, 2010 - Lincoln
TBD - Grand Island
Net Goal: $400,000

During the third weekend in May, people in cities and towns all across the nation will participate in GREAT STRIDES, the CF Foundation's annual walk and largest fundraiser. With every step of each route, money will be raised to help find a cure for CF. Anyone can join in the festivities for health, fun and prizes. Walkers will receive a GREAT STRIDES brochure with a collection envelope to collect donations from co-workers, friends, family members and others. Individual goals are $150 and teams of ten are $1,500. The first $100 earns a "Team CF" t-shirt. Donations are collected before walk day and at registration. A picnic lunch is provided to all participants.
