CF Lung Health Anthology

April 30, 2008

| Adding tomorrow every day.

This Web cast is supported by an unrestricted educational grant from Genentech, Inc.
Secondhand Smoke & CF

April 30, 2008

Michael Schechter, M.D., M.P.H.
Director, Emory Cystic Fibrosis Center
Emory University School of Medicine
A “Tar Jar”

The average smoker inhales about one cup of tar per year
Secondhand Smoke Exposure on Lung Function of People with CF

Resources to Quit

- 1-800-QUIT-NOW
- www.becomeanex.org
- www.smokefree.gov
Resources

http://www.cdc.gov/tobacco

• Secondhand smoke
• “How to Protect Yourself and Your Loved Ones from Secondhand Smoke”
• Tobacco use health effects & secondhand smoke
THANK YOU!

• Michael Schechter, M.D., M.P.H. for presenting
• You for watching & submitting questions
• Emory University for hosting
• Rick Vasta & the technical crew
• Genentech
• Sarah Waybright & the CF Foundation
Thank You

This Web cast is supported by an unrestricted educational grant from Genentech, Inc.